I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. He who believes in him is not condemned; he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does what is true comes to the light, that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been wrought in God.

“We Believe”

In this time of desperation when all we know is doubt and fear, there is only one foundation; we believe, we believe.

In this broken generation when all is dark you help us see
There is only one salvation; we believe, we believe.

We believe in God the Father, we believe in Jesus Christ, we believe in the Holy Spirit, and he’s given us new life.

We believe in the crucifixion we believe that he conquered death, we believe in the resurrection and he’s coming back again. We believe.

So let our faith be more than anthems; greater than the songs we sing.

In our weakness and temptations, we believe, we believe! [Refrain]

Let the lost be found and the dead be raised; in the here and now let love invade, let the church live love and God will save, we believe, we believe!

And the gates of hell will not prevail, the power of God has torn the veil, now we know your love will never fail, we believe, we believe. [Refrain 2x]

We believe, we believe! (repeat)

“I Saw the Light”

I wandered so aimless, life filled with sin, I wouldn’t let my dear savior in.
Then Jesus came like a stranger in the night; praise the Lord, I saw the light.

I saw the light, I saw the light, no more darkness no more night, now I’m so happy no sorrow in sight. Praise the Lord, I saw the light.

Just like a blind man I wandered along worries and fears I claimed for my own.

Then like the blind man that God gave back his sight; praise the Lord, I saw the light. [Refrain]

I was a fool to wander and stray, but straight is the gate and narrow the way.

Now I have traded the wrong for the right; praise the Lord, I saw the light. [Refrain 2x]

“How Deep the Father’s Love”

How deep the Father’s love for us, how vast beyond all measure that He should give His only son to make a wretch his treasure. How great the pain of searing loss, the Father turns His face away as wounds which mar the chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold a man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders, ashamed I hear my mocking voice, call out among the scoffers. It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished
His dying breath has brought me life I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything, no gifts, no powers, no wisdom, but I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection. Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer.

But this I know with all my heart His wounds have paid my ransom.

His wounds have paid my ransom.
